SYDNEY TEAM ALL BUT PICKED FOR FIRST EVERTON MATCH

Activities have been dramatically stepped up in all States for the visit of top English club Everton, due to arrive in Australia on Tuesday, April 28.

Sydney, where Everton will open their eight-match Australian tour, has caught tour fever and the last touches are being added to make the first soccer match at the famous Cricket Ground since 1957 the most attractive ever staged.

Everton tour promoters will not stage an early match at the Everton v. NSW match on May 2.

Instead, there will be an impressive musical prelude to the match, lasting nearly 90 minutes including, for the first time in Australia, community singing in the Wembley F.A. Final style.

Sydney selectors Nick Szegedi, the Budapest coach, former Hakoah assistant-coach Bill Walsh and NSW Federation vice - president Frank Parsons have released the names of the 22 players who make up the final Sydney squad.

In the past months players have been changed in the squad, but the list is now complete and will not be altered, barring serious injuries.

The 22 players were selected in pairs, two for each position.

The pairings are:

Goalkeeper: R. Lord (Prague), G. Mc Guire (Hakoah).
Right full-back: A. Falzon (Prague), J. Puig (Croatia).
Left full-back: S. Sherwin (Prague), P. Hughes (APIA).
Right half-back: L. Lazarevic (Yugal), H. Rodriguez (Budapest).
Centre-half: M. Stojanovic (Yugal), M. Woods (Hakoah).
Left half-back: K. Jaros (APIA), L. Scheinflug (Prague).
Right-winger: R. Blitz (Prague), R. Fekete (Hakoah).
Inside-right: L. Baumgartner (Hakoah), B. Tristram (Prague).
Centre-forward: H. Ninaus (Hakoah), J. Watkiss (APIA).
Inside-left: J. Wong (APIA), G. Barnett (South Coast).

Team in camp

The pairings will enable the selectors to stage full-dress rehearsals, between "probables" and "possibles" in the next four weeks before deciding on the strongest, fittest team to face Everton in the opening match of the first overseas tour of Australia since 1959.

The Sydney players will attend daylight training every Monday until Tuesday, April 28—the very day their opponents from Liverpool arrive in Australia.

Then the Sydney squad will assemble in "camp" at the National Fitness Camp at Narrabeen.

Away from the gay lights and temptations of cosmopolitan Sydney the players are expected to be moulded into a team capable of extending the 1963 English champions.

Although the selectors go to great lengths to claim that they still have an open mind about the team to play Everton, I feel that selection in the actual XI against the Englishmen is an open and shut case, with the exception of one position.

The team is likely to be: Lord; Falzon, Sherwin; Lazarevic (or Rodriguez), Stojanovic, Scheinflug; Blitz, Baumgartner, Ninaus, Wong, Gauto.

The preliminary Australian squad of 22 players will be announced early next week by selector-coach Jim Kelly, whose South Coast United secretary Trevis Birch has been appointed team manager.

The 22-man squad will spend five days in Sydney after which Kelly will prune it down to 16 players.

From these 16 players will come the "Australian" team to play Everton at Sydney and Melbourne.

I wanna hold your hand...

All Europe's results!

Starting this week, SOCCER WORLD introduces a new feature, aimed to please those readers who follow international results.

Through the services of Australian Associated Press, the large wire agency, we will be able to publish every week the latest match results of most European countries.

In other words you can read on Thursday all the league results of last Sunday.

As an exclusive service to our readers, we will also publish the "top of the table" of all these competitions.

The latest European league and international results come to you with the full co-operation of CINZANO, the firm which has decided to sponsor this feature.

Polonia as poll's choice to win Vic. State League

Polonia is the most highly favoured to win the Victorian State League this year.

Our tipping competition reveals this.

George Cross are not far behind Polonia in the poll, then follows JUST, Juventus, Hellas, Wilhelmina, Slavia, Lions and Melbourne.

The three tailenders are Hakoah and newcomers Triestina and Alexander.

It is interesting to note that Slavia, the 1963 Australia Cup winners, don't enjoy the public's confidence.

Their seventh place in the poll may also be the result of the lack of a large and fanatical supporting camp.

Almost half of the forecasts tip Polonia to finish first.

Only a handful of people tip them to complete the season in worse than third position.

Our Melbourne correspondent, Bob Low expects this to be the final order:

1. Polonia, 2. George Cross, 3. JUST, 4. Melbourne, 5. Wilhelmina, 6. S.M. Hellas, 7. Juventus, 8. Slavia, 9. Lions, 10. Alexander, 11. Hakoah, 12. Triestina.

BRAZIL HOST TO BIG 4-TEAM TOURNAMENT

Brazil's supreme sporting organisation, CBD, which also controls soccer, is making thorough preparations for the forthcoming four-country tournament.

The CBD has completed the full fixture list of the tourney that will help celebrate the 50th anniversary of soccer in Brazil.

This is the programme:

May 30, Brazil v. England (Rio); May 31, Argentina v. Russia (Sao Paulo); May 3, England v. Argentina (Belo Horizonte); May 4, Brazil v. Russia (Sao Paolo); May 6, England v. Russia (Sao Paulo) and Brazil v. Argentina (Rio).

The last time England played at Belo Horizonte, in 1950, they lost 0-1 to the USA in a World Cup match.

Meanwhile, not all is well with Santos FC, standard bearer of Brazilian soccer.

Their skipper, Mauro has asked to be released to end his career in Switzerland.

A players' delegation recently demanded from the club that they sell Pele as he is now too big for his boots and expects special treatment — including double bonuses.

Most Santos players — including Pele — claim that they have to play too much soccer without a let-up.

In 1963 Santos played 87 matches, 30 of which were in the Sao Paulo championship and nine in the Rio-Sao Paulo tourney, the others friendlies or internationals.

Several international stars of Santos, including Pele, Pepe, Coutinho, Gilmar and Dorval, also played more than a dozen times for Brazil, bringing their 1963 total to over 100 matches — two a week.

AUSTRIA

After a long crisis, national team manager Karl Decker has been replaced.

His successor is Josef Walter, who was from 1938 to 1963 secretary of FK Austria.

Walter accepted the appointment after the Association had agreed to implement his radical methods aimed at lifting standards.

W. GERMANY

Borussia Dortmund, Germany's new glamor team, is making a late run in the league.

A fortnight ago in Dortmund they whipped Stuttgart 7-1, bridging the gap between themselves and FC Koln to five points.

Star forward Konietzka scored four goals, fully justifying the avid interest several Italian clubs show in him.

—o—

FC Kaiserslautern, West Germany's tradition-rich club, is seeking — a president.

Many club members are fed up with having wealthy industrialists leading their club, and leading it badly.

Two former club stars, Fritz Walter and Werner Liebrich are the popular choices of the fans.

ITALY

Bologna's dope scandal has taken a new turn — three points have been taken away from the team.

A team of lawyers, however, retained by the city's soccer-loving Communist Lord Major Giuseppe Dozza, claim that the drug had been mixed into the five players' drink before the match — by unknown "saboteurs".

The case is now likely to finish up in court as Bologna will press charges against these unknown culprits.

Meanwhile, the team's next match against Spal has been postponed.

—o—

Peiro may soon quit Torino and return to his native Spain.

If this takes place, he is likely to rejoin Atletico Madrid, his former club.

The reason for Peiro's itch to leave Italy is "Rocco disease", so named after the no-nonsense Torino boss-manager.

SPAIN

Santiago Bernabeu, president and omnipotent but gentle ruler of Real Madrid, does not recommend soccer as a career for youngsters.

"If I had a son, I'd rather that he went to war as a soldier than take up soccer," he said recently.

"His chances of injury on a battlefield would be so much smaller."

ARGENTINA

Just about the same time as NSW decided to reduce the field of 12 to 10, the "Big Eight" clubs of Argentina have finally succeeded in their long struggle to form themselves into a super-league.

Led by such giants as River Plate, Racing, Boca Juniors, Independiente and San Lorenzo, they will stage their new elite league as from 1965.

It is feared, however, that the smaller clubs now forced into a separate league will suffer so heavily that many of them will close down.

Double-round over Easter opens new season in Vic.

— From BOB LOW in Melbourne —

A feast of good soccer awaits the fans at Olympic Park on Saturday and Monday, when the Victorian State League kicks off with two full rounds.

In the double-headers on both days the first games will start at 1 p.m. and the second at 3 p.m.

Here is my view on how the Saturday games may go:

Polonia v. Melbourne

(Olympic Park, 1 p.m.)

This could be a fast, exciting game with the emphasis on good soccer throughout.

Individually and as a team, Polonia are superior, and they have undoubted advantage of match play experience which they gained in their Ampol Cup win.

If Kowalec resumes after his injury spell, Polonia will have a trump card, where, unlike their opponents, they are strong on the wings.

All eyes will be on Melbourne's giant centre, Billy Ritchie who recently arrived from Scotland.

Slavia v. Hellas

(Olympic Park, 3 p.m.)

This will be a real test for Hellas and especially for their recast attack which has shown decided improvement on last season's inept displays.

Slavia have one of the best defence in the league with such an array of experienced players such as Aldis, Shepherd, Cook and Sanchez.

But peculiarly enough, the Hellas strength also lies in defence where Mantrakes and Papadopoulos are key men.

With neither side having an advantage in either defence or attack, a draw may result but for a straight out win Slavia should pull it off.

A'ander v. Triestina

(Olympic Village, 3 p.m.)

This battle of the league babes will at least prove which is to be the strongest of the two newly promoted clubs.

Alexander have done some recruiting with the signings of three good class players in Glennie, McLaughlin and Hastie.

In addition they have an exceptionally smart young centre in Spiridakas.

Triestina have been all quiet on the signing front but perhaps they are quietly confident about the result.

I doubt it and tip Alexander to grab two golden points.

Hakoah v. G. Cross

(Middle Park, 3 p.m.)

Two sides with the same style of approach play, direct and orthodox, this game should provide bright entertainment.

Hakoah with two new wing halves in Chaldi and Bewick look to some extent an improvement on last season.

But their attack lacks punch and this could be their bogey.

George Cross, also remodelling their side with new signings are not too convincing at the moment and Campbell and Goldie will have to be back to their best to give their side the edge.

If George Cross continue to play a defensive role they could be in trouble.

Lions v. Wilhelmina

(Venue undecided)

Previous teethy struggles between the two sides last season is likely to be renewed in this encounter.

Lions with their aggressive style of play may throw Wilhelmina off balance and captain-coach Tony Vella could play a big part in the Lions game with his tactics. If centre Graham Watson resumes for Lions then his side's chance will be enhanced.

Wilhelmina remain a mystery at present as in practice games they have been a real up and downer.

The ever steady McCauley at full back will play a major role in stemming any Lions attacks while in attack Bosklopper looks their danger man.

Lions may scrape through.

Juventus v. JUST

(Elsternwick Park 3 p.m.)

Can the bold tactics of Juventus,. where they. dictate and force the pattern of play, succeed against the compact, efficient and unruffled JUST side who value teamwork? I hardly think so.

Juventus, powerful in defence with Hartley, Scott and Donlevy sadly lack a general in attack which all too often misfires.

The Footscray side's success hinges largely on their all-purpose half line of Dixon, Rice and Micic who can spoon-feed their forwards and still remain calm in defence.

If JUST's attack decide to click then Juventus could be in trouble.

The games of Easter Monday are:

G. Cross v. Juventus

(Olympic Park, 1 p.m.)

With Olympic Park always a happy hunting ground for them, George Cross should account for Juventus in a thrilling game.

JUST v. Polonia

(Olympic Park, 3 p.m.)

Teamwork, precision and polish should be much in evidence with these two teams which have few superiors in these phases of the game in Australia.

If JUST get off to a flying start they may repeat their Dockerty Cup win.

Hellas v. Alexander

(Middle Park, 3 p.m.)

This battle of the Greeks should draw a big crowd with divided support.

Big time experience should favour Hellas but nothing is certain when "Greek meets Greek".

Triestina v. Lions

(Campbell Reserve, Moreland 3 p.m.)

The Italians will find the Lions a hard nut to crack.

Unless the Triestina boys can build up an early lead they will be hard pressed to even share the spoils.

Wil'mina v. Hakoah

(Jubilee Park, Ringwood, 3 p.m.)

A first class playing surface and the fans should see the sides at their best.

Wilhelmina's home advantage may prove too much for Hakoah.

Melbourne v. Slavia

(Elsternwick Park, 3 p.m.)

Constructive soccer could be the key-note in this game —if the last year's bumpy surface has been smoothed out.

A drawn encounter is not unlikely.

SPOTLIGHT on MELBOURNE

Croatia secretary, Frank Burin is in Sydney on a dual purpose visit — business and soccer.

One of Frank's missions in soccer is to try and persuade 'keeper Neil Ward who went to Sydney at the end of last season to return to Melbourne.

Frank may have a difficult task seeing that Ward's teammate and best friend, Bobby Dougan has transferred from Croatia to Canterbury.

* * *

One man emerged with honors in the Schlosser Cup tournament, Andy Kun who organised the competition.

He is the senior vice president of Melbourne and did a first class job and was complimented by the clubs who took part.

* * *

JUST are anxiously waiting for new arrivals from overseas.

Four Scottish players, one English and one from the Continent are lined up for the Footscray side.

* * *

Hellas defeated Wilhelmina 4-1 in a friendly at Middle Park on Sunday and included several youngsters in their side.

Slavia beat an under-strength Hakoah in another game at Middle Park by 3-1.

* * *

Melbourne have definitely signed Bukkos the former Juventus (Melbourne) full back who has been back in Melbourne for some time now.

But there is still no final word on Ernie Gross the former Melbourne 'keeper who is on Budapest's list.

Triestina are reported to have offered £300 for him but the Sydney club is hoping for somewhat more.

* * *

South Melbourne Hellas are reported to be interested in Melbourne goalie, Jim Davies who previously saw service with JUST, Hakoah and George Cross.

The reason for requiring a replacement goalie is the slow-mending injury of Tsitos who might be out of the game for some considerable time with his leg injury.

* * *

New George Cross signing, Tom MacPherson is quite a versatile player.

He can play in either full back or wing half position as well as inside forward.

MacPherson, 24, was with top Scottish junior club Bellshill Athletic and played senior trials for Kilmarnock, Aberdeen and Berwick Rangers.

* * *

Moonee Ponds Soccer Club have secured the services of a top coach.

He is Frank Papie, who last year was with the Budapest Soccer Club in Adelaide.

Frank has been transferred in his job to Melbourne.

Players interested in joing Ponds should contact the Secretary, Joe Bognar at 42-2873.

* * *

Alexander's new goalie, Sammy Service from Ireland who arrived on Wednesday showed impressive form in his club's two Schlosser Cup games.

Service who played for Linfield in Northern Ireland stands over the six feet mark.

* * *

"That was the week that was"—this could apply to former APIA and Slavia player, Bobby McLachlan now starring as a full back with Lions.

Last Wednesday his wife presented him with a son (their first child) and Bobby was all smiles.

But the same evening when he went to visit his wife and son in hospital his luck run out.

Bobby slipped and fell on the ward floor, hit his head on a trolley and had to have several stitches inserted in a head wound.

MELBOURNE HSC. UPSETS RIVALS IN MEMORIAL CUP

Perhaps fittingly, Melbourne HSC won the Schlosser Cup named after a Hungarian soccer hero of the past.

To take home the bacon — and the Cup — Melbourne handed out shock defeats to Juventus and JUST.

Results:

Friday night (Showground) —

Melbourne v. Juventus 4-1
JUST v. Alexander 2-0

Saturday night (South Melb. Cricket Grd.) —

Melbourne v. JUST 2-1
Alexander v. Juventus 2-1

Melbourne's game with Juventus was the actual final as both Juventus and Alexander had lost their first games of the tourney

JUST had many more scoring chances than Melbourne but failed to capitalise on them.

Melbourne played new 'keeper Willie Grubb and centre forward Billy Ritchie (both Scots) and they impressed.

Malloy at outside left for Melbourne was their star performer in both games and he scored three cracking goals to be top scorer in the competition.

JUST, trying to add punch in their attack, had Hatzelfetheriou, formerly of Hellas and Archie Blue (ex-Slavia) in their line-ups.

Frank Micic was their outstanding player in both games.

Juventus disappointed in both games and their only consolation was the promise of youngsters Fogale at centre half and Shanahaun at inside forward.

Alexander proved themselves a go-ahead side but lack an experienced general in attack to hold them together.

Left half McLaughlin was their best man on view.

— BOB LOW

DEBONO CUP FINAL

George Cross beat SM Hellas 1-0 with Hodgson scoring the only goal from a free-kick.

In the curtain-raiser Triestina defeated Hakoah 2-1.

RELEGATION MAY CHANGE

The N.S.W. Federation Council may change its mind about the relegation of three teams at the end of this season.

The motion, which was unofficially passed with a two-thirds majority three weeks ago, may be rescinded when the Council votes to officially endorse the "three down" system in mid-April.

Following the catastrophic performances of top draw-cards Budapest and particularly Pan Hellenic, delegates may have second thoughts about relegating three teams.

When the motion was passed the majority of delegates felt that relegation was an "open and shut" case with Bankstown, Corinthians and Canterbury doomed for oblivion.

Bankstown, however, threw a spanner in the works when they collected a maximum four points from the first two rounds.

SUMMING UP THE MATCHES

Bankstown did not usurp their convincing win. Prague's amazing reshuffled line-up was just not good enough for this compact, well-balanced and determined Bankstown side where Stiffle played like a man inspired. Although Prague opened the score, Bankstown always looked more dangerous. Prague had slightly more scoring chances but their forwards were incredibly clumsy and lackadaisical with the exception of Scheinflug.

Referee S. Pundyk was too lenient.

Crowd: 2,000.

— LOU GAUTIER

Not a good match. Hakoah make hard work of their victory, particularly as Canterbury played one man short for the whole second half. It was only in the last 30 minutes that Hakoah took over — after Canterbury's condition gave out. The match lacked fire and excitement, particularly in a very dull first half despite Canterbury surprisingly opening the score. Only highlight of the match was a freak, spectacular scissor-kick goal by Herbert Ninaus.

Crowd: 1,500.

—LINCOLN WALTERS

After an even first half Yugal took over completely, shattering disorganized and dispirited Pan Hellenic. The losers had their chances but messed up many good opportunities. Yugal's powerful half back line dominated the match, continuously feeding their forwards with "golden" balls. Pan Hellenic lacked their traditional fighting spirit and appear to have sunk to an all-time low while Yugal continue to impress.

Referee Parsons' comeback was successful.

Crowd: 4,800.

—LOU GAUTIER

Played under very trying, hot conditions this match never reached great heights. Cumberland were never in danger of defeat, the new Corinthians players being unable to adapt themselves to the torrid conditions. Cumberland won on their merits however, playing the better football throughout the whole 90 minutes. Corinthians missed a few opportunities at 0-1 which may have changed the physionomy of the game.

Referee F. Woolman was good.

Crowd: 1,000.

— BRIAN CANNON

This was what in Europe they aptly call "anti-football", demonstrated in heatwave conditions. Still, South Coast deserved their win as they not only fought with 10 men for 40 minutes but actually increased their precious lead. Since their first match Budapest went from bad to worse, causing their supporters to boo them off the field.

Referee A. Boskovic was excellent.

Crowd: 1,600.

— PAUL DEAN

The formula once again for APIA's success was method and precision in sharp contrast to Croatia's disorganized or individual efforts. Croatia, despite their loss, enjoyed a slight territorial advantage, particularly in the second half. When Croatia equalled the score, from 0-2, within 12 minutes in the second half they had APIA in dire straights but two huge mistakes by goalie Djukic put paid to their chances and the better balanced, although less spectacular, APIA deservedly won.

Referee Frank Sbisa controlled a clean match perfectly.

Crowd: 5,400.

Shock early leaders bid to prolong stay at top

If the results of the first two rounds are a true indication of things to come, we are in for a spellbinding and drama-packed season.

Bankstown and Yugal, two of the unfashionable teams are leading — Budapest and Pan Hellenic, two strong candidates, are at the bottom!

Before long heads may roll into the dust in several clubs —the usual result of a string of defeats.

This weekend the Yugal v. Croatia and Prague v. Hakoah clashes offer the best soccer entertainment.

Last week they demonstrated that they have good nerves to match a good team.

Canterbury, twice beaten, seem to vindicate those who had doomed them.

They just have no team to put up a good show even if the spirit is still there.

All things being equal, APIA should have a comfortable win.

Our tip: APIA.

BY PAUL DEAN

who feels that Scotch and Greek don't make the happiest brew . . .

APIA v. Canterbury

SPIRIT ONLY

Now that they got into their full stride, APIA will take a lot of beating.

P. Hellenic v. Corinth.

ANOTHER CYPRUS?

Never mind what happened to Baby Jane — what's happening to Pan Hellenic?

Our guess is that the unhappy atmosphere among some players is the chief cause of their poor start.

Corinthians have a lot of work ahead of them if they really want to escape relegation.

However, if they strike Pan Hellenic in this unhappy mood, they could obtain a valuable point.

Our tip: Draw.

Croatia v. Yugal

BEST DEFENCE

Sydney's "local derby" between the keenest two rivals could be the match of the week.

Croatia, endowed with ample talent, are strangely lopsided and inconsistent.

Yugal, on the other hand, have surprised everybody by winning twice against no mean opponents.

Their defence is so excellent that the very mediocre forwards cannot help but score a few goals from the feed of the balls.

Although the result may be close to a draw, we feel the two points will go to one team.

Our tip: Yugal.

Cumberland v. B'pest

BAD TO WORSE

Those visiting Macarthur Park should not expect a great spectacle here.

Both teams are in so-so form—Budapest so bad that it's not funny any longer.

Johnny Warren (Budapest)

How this potentially fine team could have reached such depths may only be known by an unlucky few.

Cumberland play the more direct, more purposeful football and this could be enough to decide the issue.

Budapest need a drastic revival to stay in the game.

Our tip: Cumberland.

Prague v. Hakoah

USUAL SLUMP?

Having both lost a match already, neither team can well afford another slip-up at this early stage.

Prague, at full strength, look the better team and they can be expected to make appearances count this time.

Still, they disappointed badly last week and it is possible that the traditional post-Ampol slump has struck them.

Hakoah struggled even against a hopeless Canterbury and failed to convince anybody of their form.

This could be an entertaining match with many stars on view.

Our tip: Prague.

C. Coast v. B'town

GUTS GALORE

Courageous, yes; satisfying, no—this would sum up South Coast's display last week.

They fought magnificently yet their game must improve to be challengers for top honors.

Bankstown are off to a great start, upsetting all who tipped them to be the woodenspooner.

Of course, even they cannot expect things to go on like this and their first derailment may well come at Woonona.

Our tip: S. Coast.

Herczeg puts B'pest into Cup final against Hellas

— From ALLAN CRISP in Adelaide —

Hellas and Budapest qualified for the 1964 Ampol Cup Final with narrow yet convincing semi-final wins.

B'pest v. Juventus 2-1

Budapest, with Steve Herczeg at his brilliantly constructive best, came from behind to eliminate the 1963 winter champions.

Although Herczeg's display was the best individual effort of the series, Budapest's win was a triumph of teamwork.

The young centre forward was the vital cog around which the Budapest attacking machine revolved.

Juventus were below full strength because star centre-half Syd Rossetto was in Broken Hill on business.

The Ampol Cup holders received an early set back when Lou Govelli deceived Les Szabo in the Budapest goal with a high floating shot.

Budapest drew level with superb football.

Herczeg found Foldesdi with a pin-point pass and the left-winger passed to Norm Hollis who goaled with a scorching ground shot.

Seven minutes later Budapest scored the goal which took them into the final.

Hollis sent Herczeg away on a brilliant run which ended with a typical pile-driver flashing past Charlie Horvath.

With 13 minutes remaining Huider who had given a pacy full-back exhibition received a cut over an eye and was replaced by Nemeth.

How they lined up —

Budapest: L. Szabo; Huider, F. Balter; Marton, S. Szabo, A. Balter; B. Szabo, Takacs, Herczeg, Hollis, Foldesdi.

Juventus: Horvath; Chiappin, Pagani; Crawford, Rusalen, Jenings; Russo, Howlett, Donnelly, Lindsay, Govelli.

Scorers: Hollis 32 min., Herczeg 39 min. for Budapes; Govelli 9 min. for Juventus.

Referee: D. Gardner.

Hellas v. Croatia 2-1

This incident - packed semi - final ended with Hellas as a Cup finalist in their first season in top company.

Croatia — Ampol Cup winners in 1961 and finalists in 1960 — made an inglorious exit from the night series.

Croatia completed the 27 minutes of the match with only 10 men after Willy Slager had walked off following an argument with team mate Peter Jaksa.

The latter was later suspended for three months for his part in the deplorable affair while Slager was placed under a bond by the club.

Croatia secretary John Klarich told SOCCER WORLD that Slager regretted the incident but that the club had withdrawn Slager's night-series payments pending his behaviour in the league season.

Lyster continued his fine minor round form with two opportunist goals for Hellas.

Other contributing factors were the intelligent approach work of Salabasides and Worthington and the constructive moves of half-backs Marusic and Zacharagis.

Tony Broikos played brilliantly in goal for Croatia while Graham, Irish, Franjic and Lister gave everything they had for the full 80 minutes.

How they lined up —

Hellas: Wallis; Gayialis, Coombs; Marusic, Papadopolous, Zacharagis; Halkas, Worthington, Lyster, Salabasides, Edwards.

Croatia: Broikos; Bilic, Graham; Franjic, Irish, Lister; J. Slager, Cseri, W. Slager, Jaksa, McGreevey

Scorers: Lyster 38 & 50 mins. for Hellas; Bilic 56 min. for Croatia.

Referee: W. Hosie.

"Ersatz Kiwis" overseas tour won't set the soccer world afire

— From WAYNE FLAVELL in New Zealand —

Some two weeks ago a group of Wellington football players, with sundry souls from Auckland and Poverty Bay added, calling itself the New Zealand touring team, departed on its world tour.

Instead of great rejoicing among soccer fans, however, there is uncertainty.

How many games will we win? Will we win any of the 19?

Have we picked our best team?

Ask that latter question anywhere but Wellington, and you will be besieged by irate soccer buffs, who will inform you of brilliant players ignored and snubbed; and nowhere will the complaints be more frequent than in Auckland.

Numerically, stylistically and statistically, Auckland is king of Kiwi football.

Her select city team, playing a brand of football, far more sophisticated than anything found elsewhere, usually romps home against other teams.

Ironically, on the one occasion it came unstuck last year (excluding the 1:4 against Karlsruhe), it lost the symbol of supremacy, the EFA Trophy, to Wellington.

One can only presume that it was on this basis that just over half the team chosen came from the "Windy City".

The party that left was this:

Goalkeepers: Whiting (W), Stroud (A); Backs: Evans, Scott, McBriar (all W), Kemp (A), Leong (Waikato); Halves: Bilby, Lawson (W), Sudlow (A); Forwards: Inglis, Moore, Ryan, Torkington (all W); Sefton, Pugh (Poverty Bay); Russell and Ormond (A).

W stands for Wellington, A for Auckland.

Of the 18 players, only four are New Zealand-born.

Most of the others have been here a few years; some came to Kiwiland, in fact, as boys and learnt the game here.

No one will criticise Russell or Inglis on that score.

But it does raise the point of eligibility; while we play matches against overseas club teams, with just the occasional friendly international or semi-international thrown in, nobody need care or will care two hoots.

But what about the day when we try for the Asian Cup, the Olympic tournament or even the World Cup?

Not that I am proposing that we should pick only players born in the Shaky Isles; that would be unfair to players like Whiting or McVey (yet another who should be going along), who came to this country as boys.

But I do protest at the inclusion of Stroud, fine custodian through he be, who has been in New Zealand barely 12 months.

The same goes for Lawson and Sefton and for Pugh, who has been here barely two years.

It is essential that sooner or later we recognise a time-limit of "naturalization", and stick to it.

England, Scotland, Italy, France, Spain, Portugal and others may be able to afford to let sham nationals and oriundi play for them; to us, it can do no lasting good.

The team has played four warm-up games before departure.

The 1-4 versus Basel is known to most of you; what is not known was the absolutely shocking display given by the Kiwis.

The other games were all victories against club sides—3-2 versus Blockhouse Bay; 7-0 versus Petone, and 2-0 versus Seatoun. What disturbs me, however, is the NZ style.

The cultured Auckland game cannot be played with so few Aucklanders in the team—after all, if you gave Pele and Pepe to Black Stump Rovers, would they play like Santos?

What is played, or was played against Basel, was a mixture of kick and rush plus some of 3-2-5; even this simple tactic seemed beyond the grasp of some players.

What these players will do, when they encounter football artists who really think, is anyone's guess.

By and large, the strongest team would appear to be this:—Whiting; Evans, Kemp and Leong; Bilby and Sudlow; Russell, Ormond, Moore, Inglis and Torkington.

Armstrong, the coach, may play if needed, and I suspect he will be.

So there we have it; a 77 per cent. proof group of "oriundi" will be our ambassadors, and I do wish them luck, which even the best cannot do without.

There is one ray of hope shining bright for us:—it consists of four young men named Torkington, Evans, Bilby and Kemp.

These four, we feel, will make a name for themselves on tour.

Perhaps it is a sign of a good time coming that these are our four genuine, home-grown Kiwis.

S.A. squad now recast

Nine players who helped SA head the Australian representative championship table at the end of 1963 are missing from the 25-man squad chosen to train for the Everton match.

The selectors, Cliff Connolly, Alex Cmielewski and Adam Dekkers have reserved the right to add or delete players from the squad so that men who missed the night matches can still force their way into the SA-eleven.

The squad selected to train under former Irish international and now coach of the SA team Tom Forde is —

Wallis (Hellas), Gordon (Victoria), F. Balter (Budapest), P. Hemingway (Enfld.), Stathi (Hellas), R. Jones (Birk'la), Gerken (Victoria), Marton (Budapest), West (Victoria), Lister (Croatia), Rossetto (Juventus), S. Szabo (Budapest), A. Balter (B'pest), Whincup (Enfield), McGreevy (Croatia), Baines (Austria), Worthington (Hellas), Felton (Victoria), Salabasides (Hellas), Herczeg (Budapest), Lyster (Hellas), Hamence (Polonia), E. Marusic (Hellas), McKenzie (Victoria), Edwards (Hellas).

Manager: R. Ward.

Trainer: H. Stockley.

Assistant trainer: A. Middleton.

QUARTER-FINALS BRING NO SHOCK

— From LEN TODD in Brisbane —

The quarterfinals of the Ampol Cup generally went as expected.

Hellenic v. St. Helens 2-1
Latrobe v. Coalstars 6-2
Azzurri v. Thistle 4-0
Merton v. Postal 7-0

In the semifinals, on April 4, Hellenic will meet Latrobe and Azzurri will do battle with Merton.

Hellenic just got home by the odd goal in three, with Col. Kitching getting both of Hellenic's goals and Johnnie Haswell scoring for St. Helens.

Saints really gave Hellenic a fright and when in two weeks time Hellenic go into the semifinals against Latrobe on present form their chances do not look good.

Latrobe found the speed and youth of the new Coalstars a stumbling block in the first half, and they could be proud of holding this great Latrobe team to 2-1 at the break.

Main factor was the brilliance of the Latrobe inside trio Syd Tucker, Peter Scott and Ray Richards.

These three dominated play, with the help of some fine ball distribution by the halves and full backs.

They added four goals in this period with one goal from Coalstars.

In the semi finals I expect them to defeat Hellenic and prove their true worth.

Another secret of Latrobe's success this year is their superb physical fitness.

They are 100 per cent. fit and the 90 minutes means nothing to them.

This condition been obtained by diligent attention to training over a period of months and it is paying dividents.

Given this fine double header programme of Hellenic v. St. Helens and Latrobe v. Coalstars, the Ipswich folks responded well and the crowd at Bundamba was the greatest for many years.

It was a pity that these matches clashed with those played in Brisbane.

At the Brisbane Exhibition quite a good crowd attended—and were rewarded with 11 goals from the two matches.

Neither game was ever in doubt and Merton really coasted home to win 7-0.

Eric Pattison with four goals served notice of his ability and also led the attack well.

Azzurri carried too many guns for Grange-Thistle, but we can expect considerable improvement from Grange in the near future.

They have some new Scots here, who are awaiting clearances from Scotland.

There will be no football again this week, and three most valuable playing days will be lost.

The football loving public will have no soccer offered them for the second Saturday in succession.

Here was a great opportunity to stage a Brisbane v. Ipswich match as a trial to give a guide to the selection of the team to train for the visit of Everton on May 4

It does seem strange that our management committee has such a penchant of leaving the public without any soccer on a weekend.

There is a general axiom in show business that a dark theatre on any one night of the week is bad for business.

Is it the same with football.

We send many of our regular patrons to see some other code, when we have nothing to offer, and we could lose many of them if they should happen to like what they saw.

The management committee should give this matter far more throught than hitherto, when they decide to leave our patrons without any soccer on Saturday, Sunday or on Monday holidays.

One other thing that needs attention here is advertising.

We have had two main rounds of the Ampol Cup competition and there has not been any advertising.

Everton's visit to Brisbane is only seven weeks away, yet we have received no information about this wonderful team.

We should already be flooding the shop windows with cards advertising this visit of the greatest team ever to visit Australia.

Publicity for this game is vital, but we cannot do much about it unless we receive some official information.

CRISP COMMENTS

8 0 1 0 is the number that ADS Channel 7 and 5AD hope that soccer clubs and supporters will ring today (Good Friday March 27) with donations for the Adelaide Children's Hospital Appeal.

The annual Good Friday Appeal will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until midnight.

Acknowledgments of donations will be broadcast and televised throughout the day.

I hope to be flooded with donations from the soccer fraternity during the Sporting Hour which begins at 10.30 a.m.

Adelaide Croatia have received enquiries from three Sydney clubs (APIA, Sth. Coast Utd. and Pan Hellenic) about Scottish born player Dougall Guthrie, now in Sydney.

The much sought after Guthrie would be a "gift" at £600 for any Sydney club.

Formerly with Auchin Talbot in Scotland, Guthrie could easily prove a greater success in NSW than either Nilo Rusalen or Bartol Frlan.

SYDNEY CLUB PATROL

Kevin Darcy, the top Federation official in a letter to Cumberland secretary Ossie Phillips, claims that there are only five Northern Irish first division teams which compare favorably with Sydney clubs. Darcy also writes that former Croatia half-back George Frazer now plays in Northern Ireland where he is considered among the very top players.

Conducted by EINAR PERSEN

Corinthians have signed a Scottish junior forward. He is Ken Rattney, 27, who played for Perth Celtic. Rattney spent six months at Mount Isa before coming to Sydney.

* * *

Bankstown RSL under-13 team defeated Revesby Rovers 5-2 in the final of the Thistle-sponsored Nova Shield last Sunday. The winning team also received a soccer ball.

* * *

APIA have secured a flat at Dulwich Hill for Stan Ackerley and his family. Ackerley drives a truck for Randwick Council.

* * *

Yugal's newly acquired inside-right Des Palmer will be out of action for at least four weeks. The former Welsh international tore the ligaments in his right knee in the Federation Cup match against Bankstown last Wednesday week. Palmer is the second top forward to suffer such a predicament — APIA's livewire Johnny Giacometti also being out of action with torn knee ligaments.

* * *

Surprise second division co-leaders Marconi have appointed Dutch - born Hans Kwawegen captain. Kwawegen, 24, has been four years with the club and is rated Marconi's finest ball-playing defender

* * *

The Spartan Soccer Club urgently requires several players to compete in the Eastern Suburbs All-Age competition. Interested players should ring 68-4083 between 6 p.m. and 7 p.m.

* * *

Budapest-St.George will hold a social gathering at Hurstville Oval at 5 p.m. on Sunday, April 5. Two days later at 7.30 p.m. the club will oranise a barbecue at Gladesville Oval. Bookings can be made by ringing 92-3817.

* * *

Yet another Cumberland United player has been tranferred to Granville-AEK. This time it is Queensland representative forward Norm Tran. The former Scottish second division star joins former Auburn team-mates Scott, McClelland and Staples at Granville.

* * *

Wilhelm Pilot, the Polonia-NS outside left, is expected to return this weekend. If he arrives before Friday afternoon he may play against Manly at Drummoyne Oval on Sunday. Pilot spent the last 18 months in his native Poland.

* * *

Yugal have a novel way of choosing ball boys for their home matches: they pick juniors from the Manly area for the job. Last week for instance players from the Curl-Curl junior club were officiating. Ball boys included Pat Grayson, Peter Barber, Mike Pearman, Kevin Davidson, Paul Benson, Ray Ford, Kevin Collingridge, Geoff Serich and Ian Hutton.

* * *

Melita Eagles are interested in signing Wollongong Olympic inside forward Jim Niperess. The Eagles also expect another first division Maltese player within a month. More than £65 was raised by a blanket collection at last Sunday's match at Francis Park, Blacktown.

* * *

Hakoah have placed English outside-left Eric Holder on the transfer list.

* * *

APIA officials claim that at long last they have a team of workers where every man carries his weight — in sharp contrast to previous years when too many players just strolled along and were "passengers".

* * *

Former Gladesville centre forward Peter Price is sorry he ever left Australia. Price is very keen to return. Cumberland are prepared to accept him back but only on their own terms.

* * *

The Bankstown reserve team which so convincingly defeated Prague last weekend included nine teenagers. No small feat when one considers that Prague fielded Grenville Jones, Luis Gauto and John Pettigrew in the reserves last Saturday.

* * *

Bankstown's outside left Ian Brown is worth his weight in gold. He did not cost the club a penny although he twice transferred back to Bankstown. On the other hand the club sold him to Corrimal now South Coast United for £200 before getting him back for free. Brown first joined Bankstown from Woonona-Bulli when the Federation was formed in 1957. Brown and full-back Stuart Devlin both live on the South Coast and travel three times a week to Sydney for training and matches.

* * *

Croatia fans are reminded that the club is holding a dance at 61 Regent St., City, this Saturday night at 7.30 p.m.

* * *

Johhny Giacometti comes out of hospital this weekend. He will resume training in four weeks.

* * *

A big celebration is planned for Sunday night if Melita Eagles win their all-important match against Wollongong Olympic. Enthusiastic club supporter Charlie Ciantar has promised to serve champagne all round at Melita Eagles' clubrooms at Enmore if the team wins.

* * *

Prague fans are reminded of the Easter Dance at Dunbar House, Watsons Bay, starting at 8 p.m. on Sunday.

* * *

The big APIA reserve inside forward with the impressive moustache is not a fiery South American but an Englishman: Roy Wright. He played in New Zealand for a year before coming to Australia this year. Wright has a letter from Tottenham manager Bill Nicholson certifying he was on Spurs' junior staff.

* * *

Cumberland's new British importation Matthew Collins has been informed by Australia House, London, that he may fly to Australia any day.

* * *

Former Welsh Youth international Brian Jarvis, a 28-year-old wing-half from Oldham Athletic, is expected to arrive this weekend to further reinforce surprise competition leaders Bankstown. Jarvis was a former team-mate of full-back Ted West at Oldham and also played with Ron Hewitt at Wrexham. Jarvis was a regular member of Oldham's promotion-winning fourth division team last year.He has the reputation of being a hard-tackling player.

* * *

APIA for the first time in their history have two English-born players in their first team: Johnny Watkiss and new Victorian representative full-back Stan Ackerley. The only time APIA ever fielded an Englishman in the first team was for a few weeks in 1960 when Peter Wilson played a couple of games.

NSW SECOND DIVISION

Granville-AEK and Marconi lead a very tight field

Granville-AEK and surprise-packet Marconi are the only two teams with full points after the second round.

Polonia-NS were beaten 1-2 by Granville in last week's match-of-the-round before a crowd of nearly 1,500 spectators.

The fine 4-0 win of Melita Eagles over Blacktown stamp them as a big threat for promotion now that their new players have settled down.

Surprises of the round were Sydney Austral's labored draw with Thistle and Western United's big win over Manly.

Nearly 3,000 fans watched the six matches—a near second division record aggregate.

GRANVILLE-AEK 2
POLONIA-NS 1

Scorers: Staples 55 min, Tsombaras 62 min for Granville; Woodward 10 min for Polonia-NS.

Granville-AEK: Guggemos; Shugg, Beencke; McClelland, Lorenzutta, Creely; Staples, Tran, Scott, Tsombaras, Lindsay.

Polonia-NS: Henderson; Calphy, Cebula; Rosa, Friar, Nowacki; Woodward, Mikula, Adamson, Witczak, Rosik.

Polonia-NS, handicapped by the absence of star forward Hajduk and the injury to Witczak, could not match Granville in the second half.

Polonia dominated the first half, however, and could still have won with more accuracy.

Granville played steady, methodical football but should have won by a bigger margin in view of their opponents' weariness after the interval.

Crowd: 1,500.

WOLLONGONG OLYM. 4
SUTHERLAND 1

Scorers: Egbers 21 min, R. Burns 59 and 60 mins, Tolhurst 72 min for Wollongong Olympic; Masters 62 min for Sutherland.

Wollongong Olympic: Delhaas; Isedale, Egbers; Peters, Christlo, Soldi; Burns, Periclosis, Polonis, Mulbruer, Tolhurst.

Sutherland: Robinson; Dean, Travers; R. Rattenbury, Gilham, Moore; Wallace, Masters, D. Rattenbury, Hagner, Cosgrave.

A fast match with plenty of good moves.

There was never any doubt about Wollongong's superiority, particularly in the second half when Burns showed great form.

Crowd: 300.

CONCORDIA 2
MARCONI 3

Scorers: Lind 65 min, Roewekamp 78 min for Concordia; Kwawegen 15 min, J. McCann 23 min, Ganis 88 min for Marconi.

Marconi: Schiscato; Losurdo, Scotti; Kwawegen, Okon, Lamacchia; J. McCann, Squadrito, Ganis, Kelly, R. McCann.

Concordia: Mateusek; Relich, Lind; Wilker, Pokorny, Mestrum; Lumpi, Holzer, Karmainsky, Roewekamp, Pucher.

A close, exciting game which only went Marconi's way two minutes before full time when centre-forward Ganis fired in a tremendous shot.

Both teams attacked continuously, Marconi showing slightly more ball control and dash.

Crowd: 200.

BLACKTOWN-BSK 0
MELITA EAGLES 4

Scorers: Montague 7 min, Merlino 15 and 75 mins, Chircop 40 min for Melita Eagles.

Blacktown-B S K: Gollie; Jovanovic, Arresto; Milankovic, Zoratto, Dusan; S. Melinz, Vibert, Jelisavcic, Dekany, Carr.

Melita Eagles: Gatt; Doevendans, Hamer; Marks, Fazakerley, Binnie; Zammit, Montague, Merlino, Calleja, Chircop.

Melita Eagles thrashed Blacktown-BSK in their best match for years, despite their hard Cup match the previous day.

The score would have been far bigger had it not been for a great display by Blacktown goalie Gollie.

Louis Marks was the best player on the field but every Melita player gave a good account of himself.

Crowd: 500.

MANLY 2
WESTERN UNITED 5

Scorers: Harris 26 min, Jones 79 min for Manly; Burnett 3,35 and 60 mins, McDonald 27 min, Gorman 67 min for Western United.

Manly: Oram; Greenstreet, Arbuckle; Breen, Abbebroek, McMichael; Hazelwood, Harding, Jones, Hopley, Harris.

Western United: Barnes; Nellis, Melrose; Ruston, Cooper, White; Cousins, Gorman, Burnett, Bell, McDonald.

A scrappy game where Western United capitalized well on Manly's many defensive errors.

The winners passed the ball better but were not nearly as superior as the score would indicate.

Crowd: 200.

THISTLE 0
SYDNEY AUSTRAL 0

Thistle: Gilholme; Butler, Jamieson; Parish, R. Cummings, Kent; Murray, M. Cummings, Grezlak, Such, Jameson.

Sydney Austral: line-up not available.

A good game, dominated by the magnificent display of goalie Gerry De Vries who pulled off some magnificent gaves to discourage a surprisingly nippy Thistle forward-line.

Sydney Austral fielded three former Bankstown players, Smit and Steckham having joined De Vries at the Dutch-sponsored club.

Crowd: 100.

THIS WEEKEND

Tippd to win: Concordia, Thistle, Melita Eagles, Sydney Austral, Granville-AEK and Polonia-NS.

The Melita Eagles v. Wollongong Olympic clash will be the match-of-the-round and should be very close.

A win for the Sydneysiders would make them a distinct promotion possibility, while Wollongong's hopes would slump.

SEAMONDS-FEDERATION CUP

Polonia 'dies' after plucky show, Yugal snatch draw

APIA had to fight all the way to beat Polonia-NS 5-3 and Yugal were held to a 2-2 draw by Bankstown in last Wednesday week's Federation Cup matches at Marks Field.

Although APIA beat Polonia-NS comfortably, they were given a mighty fright by second division's main contenders for promotion this year.

Polonia-NS held APIA until referee Scarborough awarded APIA a most undeserved penalty in the 63rd minute.

This demoralized Polonia, allowing APIA to gain the upper hand.

APIA overran Polonia in the last 20 minutes, but Polonia impressed as a classy, ballplaying team every bit as good—if not better—than two or three current first division teams.

APIA: J. De Francesco; C. Van Blerk, F. Bottalico; P. Hughes, J. Marston, K. Jaros; R. Chapman, W. Sinclair, J. Watkiss, J. Wong, R. McKellar.

Polonia-NS: W. Henderson; D. Calphy, H. Cebula; J. Mikula, B. Boland, J. Nowacki; K. Adamson, B. Gumowski, W. Hajduk, K. Witczak, B. Rosik.

Scorers: K. Jaros 46 min, W. Sinclair 63 min penalty, J. Watkiss 70 min, R. Chapman 79 and 83 mins for APIA; K. Adamson 2 min, K. Witczak 75 min penalty, J. Nowacki 85 min for Polonia-NS.

Referee: R. Scarborough.

Yugal v. B'town 2-2

In the other match Yugal and Bankstown played out an equitable draw, both teams dominating one half each. . .

Down 0-2 at half-time, Yugal came back strongly although playing with 10 men, Palmer having left the field injured at half time.

Half-back Lazarevic inspired the Yugal revival with two great goals.

The match will be replayed on Easter Monday at Wentworth Park.

Yugal: K. Spiegel (M. Mazzina); H. Ringhoff, J. Mucilo; L. Lazarevic, M. Stojanovic, F. Dunaj, (S. Ivanecevic); J. Alagich, E. Schwarz, A. Nincevic, D. Palmer, J. Medina.

BILL HUME
. . . scored a goal

Bankstown: W. Rorke; S. Devlin, E. West; R. Cowling, R. Madden, C. Perkins, I. Brown; N. Stiffle, R. Hewitt, W. Hume, J. Turner, R. Marklew.

Scorers: W. Hume 8 min, N. Stiffle 27 min for Bankstown; L. Lazarevic 52 and 61 mins for Yugal.

Referee: J. Scifleet.

Crowd: 2,900.

Wollongong Olympic qualified for the last sixteen by defeating Melita Eagles 4-3 at Macarthur Park last Saturday.

PEN PAL WANTED

Michael Elt, 11, of Manchester, England, would like a soccer-loving Australian pen friend.

Michael is a Manchester United fan.

His address is 19 Warrington Rd., Higher Balckley, Manchester, England.

Hungarian star may come

A former Hungarian ace, Istvan Mike plans to come to live in Sydney later this year.

Mike played for Ferencvaros and Hungary at centre forward after the war, then settled down in Italy where for years he was the goalscoring hero of FC Bologna.

In a letter to me last week Mike said he wanted to come to Australia to give his children a better chance for the fuure.

Once in Sydney, Mike should have no difficulties in finding a coaching position.

Years ago he passed the strict and severe Italian coaches' examination and has been engaged by top clubs for years.

In his letter Mike said Italian clubs made it increasingly difficult for foreign-born coaches to get employment.

Today only a handful of South Americans, the extremely popular Swede Liedholm and an Austrian, Ocwirk operate successfully in Italy.
